Kathleen – thank you for your offer. As you can imagine right now we are faced with several different immediate tasks and while I work on the Animas River project, I am in the remedial side and it is mostly in the Removal's hands. As we move forward, we will be looking at all contracting options.

Thanks

Hi Paula,

Not sure if you are directly involved in the response to the spill at the Animas River, but if you are, we would love to help. There are several contract vehicles that are available that we can use. Let me know if we can help!

Thanks,

Kathleen
